

Cracking down on crime

Some of the things we have done through the New Deal programme

The Safe Project
Tackling domestic violence

Eye on the Street
New CCTV cameras at key locations

Local Police Team
Set up the New Deal Police Team - extra bobbies on the beat

safeHome
Safeguarded 1,821 homes since 2000 with free home security measures

Neighbourhood Wardens
Patrolled the streets and responded to the concerns of the community

Head cameras
State-of-the-art technology puts our Police Team one step ahead in beating crime

Antisocial Behaviour Co-ordinator
Bringing communities and agencies together to tackle antisocial behaviour

Crime & Community Safety

Centre West is working hard to cut crime in our community - and it's making a real difference.

People feel safer

66% of residents are less worried about burglary.
(Ipsos MORI opinion poll 2008)

Homes are safer

Almost 2,000 homes have received a free security upgrade.

Local Police Team continues

Our funding for the Police Team has ended - but Northumbria Police has kept the team in place.

Crime cut by half

The overall crime rate is down by 46% since 2000. That means there are now 1000 fewer victims of crime every year in our area.
