

Helping people into jobs, helping businesses succeed

Some of the things we have done through the New Deal programme

Help into work

Schemes like At Work, People Acumen and JET helped over a thousand people into work

Just the job

We're working with local agencies to set up a new one-stop shop for job hunters

PASS Project

Provided help with skills - without feeling like being back at school

Newcastle Home Care Associates

Set up with a grant from New Deal, this employee-owned company provides jobs and care services locally

Community Furniture Service

Collecting unwanted furniture - and passing it on to people who need it

Help into business

From the Enterprise Support Centre and Business Development Team

Time Exchange

Local people sharing their skills and time in the community

Jobs & Business

Making an impact

Over 1300 people helped into jobs...and more into training

Help for over 300 businesses through that difficult first year

(New Deal monitoring figures)

Community together Residents have shared over 40,000 hours in the community through the
Time Exchange

(Time Exchange figures)

Tackling low incomes

30% of local households now live on less than £180 per week - down from 46% in 2002

Affordable furniture
– for people who need it

Tons and tons of furniture redirected to people on low incomes
